Lesson: Music in the Golden Age and in “El Retrato Vivo”
Ronda Music

By Fran Morón, BYU MA Student

Date: January 23, 2008

Objectives:

• Students will be able to recognize the folkloric Ronda music from Spain.
• Students will be able to recognize the musical instruments used in the Golden Age.
• Students will be able to find similarities with this medieval type of music and the music they hear today.

Materials needed:

• Cd or simple and easy web page to download a sample of Ronda music, like www.airesderonda.com (this is a good place to go and show a little sample)
• If you go to www.tuna.upv.es/instrum/:
  1. Click on “Sonido”.
  2. In the dialogue box scroll down until you find “Tuna Compostelana” Click there and then on “Buscar”.
  3. Click again on “Tuna Universitaria de Compostela” (it will take you to their CD)
  4. Click on the first song “Tuna Compostelana” (it will take a minute to download)
  5. Ask the students to sing along during the chorus

• Transparency with pictures of people dressed up for a Ronda event, and the different musical instruments.
• Transparency for the song “Tuna Compostelana”

Activities:

Warm up: Play part of a song and ask them if they know what type of music it is as well as if it reminds them of any songs they like.

Explain: What Ronda music means (also the term “folkloric”) . . .
  Where it comes from . . .
  Musical instruments used . . .

• Ronda music is a medieval type of music from Spain from around the XI and XII centuries.
• Golden Age theatre used it as a way to entertain people during intermissions.
• In “El Retrato Vivo,” the actors dance and sing Ronda music, which is a very happy type of music.
• Ronda means Round and nowadays we have a type of Ronda, like the song “Row, row, row your boat gently down the stream…. Ask them what other rounds they know and compare the use of today’s rounds and Golden Age rondas.

- It also means “going around” while singing in order to get women to fall in love with them. Men would do this during the day or during the night and they would sing from the street to the girl’s balcony or bedroom window.
- The main instruments used are the guitar, the lute (laud)—which is a medieval type of instrument, and the tambourine (show pictures).
- It is a type of folk music sang or played still today both in little towns as well as in cities.

Sing along with a transparency in the round style “Row, row, row your boat…”

Sing “Tuna Compostelana” as a class.

Homework:
Come up with a song using different works for the melody from the round “row, row…”
Musical instruments used by the Ronda music

Laúd (Lute)

Guitarra (guitar)

Pandereta (tambourine)

People dancing around to the sound of Ronda music

Men under a woman’s window, singing to make her fall in love with him
A group of young people going around the little town of Soria playing and dancing to the sound of Ronda music

Row, row, row your boat
Gently down the stream
Merrily, merrily, merrily
Life is but a dream
Tuna Compostelana

Pasa la tuna en Santiago
Cantando muy quedo romances de amor
Luego la noche sus ecos
Los cuela de ronda por todo balcón
Y allá en el templo del APOSTOL Santo
Una niña llora ante su patrón
Porque la capa de tuno que adora
No lleva las cintas que ella le bordó
Porque la capa de tuno que adora
No lleva las cintas que ella le bordó

(Éstribillo) (Chorus)
Cuando la tuna te dé serenata                (When the round comes to your window
No te enamores compostelana                 don’t fall in love girl from Compostela
Que cada cinta que adorna mi capa       Every ribbon that is in my cape
Guarda un trocito de corazón         Keeps a piece of your heart.)
Ay tra la la lai la la la
No te enamores compostelana  (Don’t fall in love girl from Compostela
Y deja la tuna pasar                        and let the round go around
Con su tra la la la la with its tra la la la la)

Hoy va la tuna de gala
Cantando y tocando la marcha nupcial
Suenan campanas de gloria
Que dejan desierta la Universidad
Y allá en el templo del APOSTOL Santo
Con el estudiante hoy se va a casar
La galleguiña melosa, melosa
Que oyendo esta copla ya no llorará

Éstribillo (Chorus)
