PROGRAM OVERVIEW

With nearly 30 graduate faculty members, the Department of Spanish and Portuguese offers one of the largest and most diverse MA-level language programs in the country with a wide variety of courses in literature, linguistics, and pedagogy. The department admits approximately 15 graduate students each year, many of whom, upon completion of the program, continue their studies at the doctoral level or seek jobs in secondary education. Recent graduates have been accepted into premier PhD programs including Harvard, Cornell, Brown, Stanford, Cambridge, and Vanderbilt. Other students have obtained positions with government agencies or in the business sector.

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

The department offers two MA programs (one in Spanish and one in Portuguese). Applicants must indicate an area of specialization within one of these programs at the time of application. They are therefore encouraged to consult with faculty before making this important decision. The areas of specialization are:

- Hispanic or Portuguese Linguistics
- Spanish or Portuguese Pedagogy
- Hispanic or Luso-Brazilian Literatures

FINANCIAL AID

- SCHOLARSHIPS: Most students receive partial scholarship grants to help cover tuition expenses (generally 65-80%).
- STUDENT INSTRUCTORSHIPS: Most MA candidates teach one or two language classes each semester to support themselves financially (about $3,400 per 4 credit course).
- TRAVEL ASSISTANCE: A modest amount of money is available to help students with travel expenses to present at conferences or participate in other academic programs.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Students should apply online by February 1 at www.graduatestudies.byu.edu
- Prerequisites: BA in Spanish or Portuguese, or its equivalent
- Minimum overall GPA: 3.3 (last 60 hours); minimum Portuguese/Spanish GPA: 3.5
- A formal research paper in Spanish or Portuguese
- A statement of intent outlining the student’s academic objectives
- Three letters of recommendation
